

Our club house is officially opened

June 2016 - Tamborine Mountain Bridge Club President Keith Bowman hosted the official opening of the new club house at the Tamborine Mountain Sports Centre on Long Road.

The ceremony was well attended by members and guests and Keith recounted the efforts by many club members to gain approvals and then to construct and fit out the building.

The club house was officially opened by the local Member of the Queensland Parliament, Jon Krause.

LEFT: Keith Bowman (left) observes as Jon Krause officially unveils a plaque to commemorate the official opening.

LEFT: John and Christine Youngman (left) and Carol and Keith Bowman are applauded for their contributions to the new club house.